WASS UP SINGLES: MOVIE "LIVING" - SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 19TH

4:00 PM - 6:00 PM AT THE STRAND MOVIE THEATRE, SIMCOE

Drama, English language, 1 hour, 42 minutes. This film is a remake of the 1952 film "Ikiru" by Akira Kurosawa and is written by Nobel and Booker Prize-winning author Kazuo Ishiguro. Bill Nighy stars as a British bureaucrat who questions his entire life after receiving a terminal diagnosis. Nighy's understated lead performance melds with the perfectly constructed sense of time and place to produce a fitting film tribute to the classic original. The questions Nighy asks are the thorny, challenging questions we all must contemplate: Did I accomplish anything? Will I leave anything behind? What will be my legacy?

You can watch a trailer for "Living" at this link: CLICK HERE

This group event would be 'in lieu of' our monthly on-site February WASS UP group gathering.
