HYMN BOOKS

The Church has a number of old Hymn books which we do not need. We have checked with our National Church and Churches in our Presbytery and they have no need for them either.

If you are interested in having one, please contact our Church Secretary, Nancy Jonker, by the end of October

“What does an elder do?”

Ruling Elders play a key role in the life of the congregation. Through membership on Session, they work closely with the minister (teaching elder) in:

- supervision and oversight of the congregation
- membership and pastoral care
- worship, including participation in the sacraments
- Christian education
- stewardship and mission
- relating to presbytery, synod and General Assembly

Most decisions about the life and work of the congregation are made by Session. With the minister, who acts as the moderator of Session, elders work as leaders—leading the congregation in its fellowship (its ministry to one another) and in its mission (its ministry to the world).

Elders seek the will of God for the congregation so they can lead it in the direction they believe Jesus would have it go. They seek to model themselves after Jesus as they listen to people and serve the church.

The church believes that God has given each elder gifts, that the congregation has recognized these gifts, and that each elder has “discerned a call.” By sharing their gifts elders are able to carry out their many tasks and responsibilities
